Cetacean Incidental Sightings

Observer Name: …… Email or phone: ……..

Date	Start time	End time	Location (written description or a latitude/longitude when possible)	Sea state	Species	Certainty (def., prob., poss.)	Group size				Behaviour
							Best guess	Range	No. of juveniles	No. of calves

Sea state: 0=mirror calm; 1=slight ripples, no foam crests; 2=small wavelets, glassy crests, but no whitecaps; 3=large wavelets, crests begin to break, few whitecaps; 4=longer waves, many whitecaps; >4=rough; N/K=Not sure

Behaviour: Surfacing; normal swim; fast swim; blow; feeding; leaping; tail or flipper slap, fluking, bow-ride; resting; sexual; other (please describe).

Falklands Conservation's Cetacean Shore Watch Citizen Science project is supported by Falkland Islands Government, and the Darwin Initiative.

Please return your data forms to outreach@conservation.org.fk or deliver them to PO BOX 26, Stanley.