Cetacean Shore Watch

CAPE PEMBROKE LIGHTHOUSE

Date: …….. No. of Observers: …… Observer Name(s): …… Email: ……

EFFORT
Start time	End time	Sea state	Swell	Visibility	Sighting Ref(s).

Sea state: 0=mirror calm; 1=slight ripples, no foam crests; 2=small wavelets, glassy crests, but no whitecaps; 3=large wavelets, crests begin to break, few whitecaps; 4=longer waves, many whitecaps.

Swell height: L (light)=<1 m; M (moderate)=1–2 m; H (high)=>2 m.

Visibility: P (poor)=<1 km; M (moderate)=1–5 km; G (good)=6–10 km; E (excellent)=>10 km.

Do not watch in sea state 4 or higher, in high swell or in poor visibility.

SIGHTINGS
Ref.	Marked on map? Y/N	Start time	End time	Species	Certainty (def., prob., poss.)	Group size				Behaviour
						Best guess	Range	No. of juveniles	No. of calves

Behaviour: Surfacing; normal swim; fast swim; blow; feeding; social/play, leaping; tail or flipper slap, fluking, bow-ride; resting; sexual; other (please describe).

Falklands Conservation's Cetacean Shore Watch Citizen Science project is supported by Falkland Islands Government, and the Darwin Initiative.
Please return your data forms to outreach@conservation.org.fk or deliver them to PO BOX 26, Stanley.